	V.	ORDE	R OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
	MARCUS WILLIAM DAVIS, Defendant	Case	05-CR-50052-FL
	v		has been held. I conclude that the following facts require
Part I—Findings of Fact
[1)		tibed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) a offense if a circumstance giving § 3156(a)(4). e is life imprisonment or death.	and has been convicted of a federal offense stat g rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is
(3)	a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-©, or comparable state or local offenses. 2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. 3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). 4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A)
X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
Λ (1)	X for which a maximum term of imprisonmen	it of ten years or more is prescr	ibed in 18: U.S.C. 801 et. seq.
X (2)	under 18 U.S.C. § 924©. The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
_ (1)	Alternative Findings (B)
	 There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
T.C.		ritten Statement of Reason
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that detention is appropriate in this matter. The record should reflect that the defendant has a previous conviction in federal court for conspiracy to distribute cocaine, possession with intent to distribute cocaine, and distribution of cocaine. This sentence was imposed in November, 1994. In January of 2003, the defendant began a 5 year term of supervised release. It appears that the instant offense was committed while the defendant was on supervised release. It further appears that the defendant has continued to engage in criminal activity. I find that the defendant has failed to overcome the presumption in this matter that there are no conditions or a combination of conditions which will ensure his appearance before the court and the safety of the community. He shall be detained in this pending trial. IT IS SO ORDERED.
